CALIFORNIA STATE LIBRARY

Periodical Subscription Requirements

A. SERVICE SCOPE AND COVERAGE

1.0 General

This procurement is intended to cover the purchase of subscriptions to periodicals. However, certain exceptions noted below in 2.0 Special Cases, such as free and controlled circulation titles are to be included in the service where possible.

- 1.1 The vendor's service shall include domestic titles and titles of non-U.S. origin. If the service excludes specified subscription materials, e.g., titles from given countries, the vendor should state those exclusions.
- 1.2 The service shall offer titles in paperform, microform, video formats, digital formats, or optical disk formats, as furnished by the publisher.
- 1.3 In performing work under a purchase order issued under this IFB, vendor shall agree to comply with special business enterprise participation goals regarding Subcontractors and Suppliers.
- 1.4 All work must be of professional quality.

2.0 Special Cases

The vendor shall provide where obtainable, special types of subscriptions, to be selected at the CSL's option, including, but not limited to:

- 2.1 Free or controlled circulation publications.
- 2.2 Society membership and professional associations' publications, including societies to which the CSL belongs and those to which it does not belong.
- 2.3 Bill later upon publication.
- 2.4 Publisher's package plans, including all titles being sent as a result of purchasing one particular title.
- 2.5 Free online access to a title when provided at the same price with a print subscription.

3.0 Other

If selected, the CSL requests vendor to provide the following documentation to be submitted for review:

- 3.1 Describe what categories of other serial materials are furnished by the vendor, e.g., newspapers, supplements, continuations, legal materials, loose-leaf services, monographic series, annuals, indexes, membership plans, etc.
- 3.2 Describe the vendor's forms and means of communication with both the publisher and the CSL regarding placing new orders, claims, cancellations or additional copies.

- 3.3 Attach copies of all claim-related forms and reports and indicate their uses.
- 3.4 Attach copies of all invoice-related forms and reports available and indicate their uses.
- 3.5 Attach sample copies of all management and statistical reports that vendor can provide to the CSL.
- 3.6 As part of its database search service, the vendor should offer search only access by the CSL to its own subscriptions and their status (active and inactive). Specify charges if applicable.
- 3.7 Describe the vendor's plan for final resolution of claims that have been unanswered or have not been resolved to the CSL's satisfaction.
- 3.8 Describe the vendor's step by step plan for converting the CSL's subscriptions with previous vendors. Explain what action the vendor and the CSL will take cooperatively, to assure unbroken continuity in the CSL's subscriptions during and after a changeover.

B. MINIMUM SERVICE REQUIREMENTS

1.0 Database

- 1.1 The vendor shall offer by means of remote, online search access a machine-readable database of serials listing titles available for subscription through its services, at minimum. It should be searchable by multiple indexes such as title, publisher, ISSN, vendor number, subject category, language, country of publication, etc.
- 1.2 The database shall include both bibliographic information and acquisition information such as subscription price.
- 1.3 The database shall be kept current and accurate.
- 1.4 The database shall be made accessible online to the CSL.
- 1.5 The information contained in the vendor's database shall reflect data elements including but not limited to:
 - a. Title of publication and associated bibliographic information including title changes.
 - b. Identifying information, e.g. frequency, form, volume numbering and date of first issue, etc.
 - c. Subscription term and current price.
 - d. Any special condition, e.g. memberships, packages, supplementary publications.
 - e. Publisher names, address, telephone.

2.0 Placing Orders

The vendor should provide a comprehensive service for initiating new orders and changing the quantity of copies of existing subscriptions.

- 2.1 Vendor shall order, renew, or cancel subscriptions, at the sole discretion of the CSL, working with the CSL's representative.
- 2.2 The vendor shall handle all contact and correspondence with publishers regarding orders placed, duplicate issues sent, cancellations, claims for missing issues, address changes, adjustments, and other services.
- 2.3 The vendor shall be able to accept and place new orders for single titles or additional copies at any time during the year according to the CSL's instruction. These orders shall be merged automatically into the next main invoice; so that all titles, up to a reasonable cutoff, shall be listed in a single updated renewal invoice for that payment cycle.
- 2.4 The vendor shall be able to accept a manual (paper) method for the CSL to start a subscription using the vendor service.
- 2.5 The vendor shall provide a means for associating the following data elements with an order for an individual title, once the order is accepted, to assure proper State fund accounting:
 - a. State of California Project Cost Account (PCA) number and/or Organizational Account (Index) number.
 - b. CSL Purchase Order number for the title.
 - c. Quantity of copies wanted.
 - d. Start date desired; subscription term desired.
 - e. Delivery address
 - f. Price

(CSL will comply with the vendor's preferred method for identifying a title, e.g., by submission of a title code from the vendor's catalog of titles.)

- 2.6 The vendor shall acknowledge receipt of all the CSL orders by mail, facsimile or by other electronic devices:
 - a. Not later than an average of 10 working days after receipt by vendor for routine orders.
 - b. Not later than 1 day after receipt by vendor for a "rush" order.
- 2.7 The vendor shall provide prompt checking and confirmation of title availability for orders placed by the CSL.
- 2.8 The vendor should notify the CSL within 10 working days when the vendor determines that a delay may occur in delivery of any title ordered.
- 2.9 The vendor shall attempt to obtain titles requested by the CSL that are not presently offered via this service.
- 2.10 The vendor shall notify the CSL within 10 working days of titles that are confirmed unavailable, with the reason.

- 2.11 The vendor shall, as part of order processing, convey any special instructions from the CSL to publishers regarding auxiliary material when associated with a subscription but NOT wanted by the CSL, e.g., supplementary monographs, off-prints, etc. The vendor shall assure the CSL receives all information sent by publishers relating to subscribers, e.g., notices to members and voting proxies.

3.0 Terms and Expiration

An important element of service expected from a vendor is control over subscription term and of expiration dates.

- 3.1 The vendor shall be capable of establishing a single, effective common expiration date, with one invoice, for ALL subscriptions contracted by the CSL, at the CSL's sole option. (The vendor should inform the CSL if this is not fully possible due to various restrictions in individual cases).
- 3.2 The vendor shall provide the option of different common expiration dates for groups of subscriptions, at the CSL's sole discretion; for example, two sets (one for calendar year starts, the other for July starts).
- 3.3 To implement common expiration, the vendor shall pro-rate the charges on a new order for the fraction of a subscription term that equals the difference between the start date for a title and the next successive and applicable common expiration.

4.0 Modifying and Terminating Orders

A key service needed is the ability to modify subscriptions during their lifespan and careful control over cancellations initiated by the CSL.

- 4.1 The vendor shall accept a modification order from the CSL to an existing subscription including but not limited to adding copies, deleting copies, and changing of delivery address.
- 4.2 The vendor shall provide a method to cancel a subscription in a timely manner upon request by the CSL.
- 4.3 Except for subscriptions stated by publisher to be non-cancellable, the vendor shall accept cancellations during the term of the subscription.
- 4.4 The vendor shall indicate the amount of lead-time, if any required by the publisher to cancel a title at the CSL's request.
- 4.5 If a cancellation is accepted by the publisher, the vendor shall make every reasonable effort to secure applicable refunds, credits, or substitute titles to complete a subscription, for the full amount of any unexpired portion of the subscription. The vendor shall notify the CSL in a timely manner regarding denied refunds.
- 4.6 The full amounts of refunds for cancellations obtained from publishers by the vendor shall be returned to the CSL in the form of a refund check or shall be credited to the CSL's account and reflected on the next subsequent CSL invoice.
- 4.7 The vendor shall delete all cancelled titles from the next main renewal list and/or invoice as a standard procedure.
- 4.8 The vendor shall be capable of providing alternative delivery modes for individual titles, if such alternatives are available, on request by the CSL, e.g., Surface Mail, airmail, Air Parcel Post, at the then prevailing rates of those modes.

- 4.9 The vendor, as it becomes aware of them, shall notify the CSL of changes or irregularities in publications to which the CSL subscribes. These include title changes, delayed publications, discontinued titles, and suspended publications. The method proposed should be described in the bid, e.g., a "title change news bulletin".

5.0 Claims and Adjustments

The successful vendor must provide accurate and timely response to the CSL's claims for lost, missing, or damaged issues and must represent the CSL's interests in dealing with publishers.

- 5.1 The vendor shall perform claiming and render adjustments on deficiencies including, but not limited to:

- a. Missing issues/missing copies/damaged issues.
- b. Single back issue orders
- c. Incorrect number of copies received.
- d. Non-requested subscription received.
- e. Erroneous start date.
- f. Erroneous expiration date.
- g. New subscription not fulfilled.
- h. Cancellation not activated.
- i. Price changes.
- j. Change in publication frequency.
- k. Address changes.
- l. Supplementary material owed but not received.

- 5.2 The vendor shall provide a method, in at least hard copy (paper), for the CSL to request claims and other adjustments, review their status upon notification from the vendor, and to follow up on claims in process.

- 5.3 The vendor should indicate any additional associated costs for claiming not covered in the vendor's standard service charge.

- 5.4 The vendor should automatically acknowledge by some method all first claims entered by the CSL through the vendor.

- 5.5 The vendor shall contact the publisher regarding any CSL claim or request for assistance within two working days of receiving the claim from the CSL.

- 5.6 The vendor shall provide the capability to make multiple successive claims for the same individual issue; the quantity of claims to be not less than three.

- 5.7 The vendor should provide the capability to control the claims in process by permitting the CSL to signify:

- a. How long to continue to list the claim
- b. The interval at which to send the next successive claim.
- c. Whether to send a claim or not for an issue contained in the claims-in-process file.

- 5.8 Describe how many claim cycles (1st claim, 2nd claim, 3rd claim) are executed by the vendor before pursuing another approach, and describe what other approaches are taken (ex: telephone calls, letters, etc.)

- 5.9 The vendor shall represent the CSL's interests in any and all disputes involving unresolved claims.

6.0 Reports of Status of Claims, Replacements, and Other Adjustments

- 6.1 A monthly status report of titles and issues claimed shall be made available and provided to the CSL by the vendor. The list should be arranged alphabetically by title.
- 6.2 The vendor shall furnish at its own expense any missing issues which the CSL claimed within the publisher's stated time limits but which the publisher refuses to supply free of charge for whatever reason.
- 6.3 The vendor shall request publishers to send replacement copies of periodicals to which CSL subscribes through the vendor, which are found by the CSL to be defective, mutilated, damaged, or lost in shipment to the CSL.

7.0 Renewals

The process of renewal is a labor-intensive phase of serial work. The method offered by the vendor must be efficient and economical.

- 7.1 The vendor shall offer a regular renewal option, which requires positive confirmation by the CSL that renewal is to be entered by the vendor for individual titles.
- 7.2 The vendor will furnish an annual list of currently subscribed titles for the CSL's review and allow enough time for renewal decisions to be made.
- 7.3 On-demand lists of the CSL's subscriptions for renewal review should be available from the vendor at the CSL's option.
- 7.4 The vendor should provide the option for renewal including but not limited to "Automatic" renewal succeeding the startup term without any positive action by the CSL.
- 7.5 The vendor shall provide the capability to adjust start date or expiration date for renewals; to recognize extensions of a subscription due to merged/split titles, duplicate issues, missing issues, bonus issues, etc.
- 7.6 The number of cycles offered for expiration and renewal should be at least one a year beginning with July.

8.0 Invoice Service and Fiscal Operations

The CSL seeks to minimize invoice processing. The accuracy and completeness of this process thus becomes paramount.

- 8.1 The vendor shall provide consolidated, itemized, complete, and accurate invoices via at least a manual (paperform) method for the CSL.
- 8.2 The vendor shall provide in an invoice, as applicable, the following data elements required by the CSL.
 - a. ISSN Number
 - b. Frequency of publication
 - c. Copy information for each location.
 - d. Title including title change information if available
 - e. CSL internal location codes and funding codes
 - f. Purchase order numbers
 - g. Subscription period covered by this payment
 - h. Price information
 - i. Additional titles included in a particular subscription

- 8.3 The vendor should provide for the CSL to elect which month to receive the regular invoice for a given renewal cycle.
- 8.4 The vendor shall provide separate invoices for all new titles purchased during the year. New titles shall not be included in the renewal invoice until they become renewals.
- 8.5 The vendor should also provide flexibility in billing at CSL option, e.g., invoices to cover special issue orders not on subscription, bill later, replacements, change of term on a subscription, etc.
- 8.6 Price changes, supplemental charges, and adjustments shall be grouped and sent together as a single special invoice no more frequently than once per month.
- 8.7 Orders and payments to publishers shall be released by the vendor to the publishers at least 45 days before the ordered start date for new subscriptions, or before the expiration date of renewed subscriptions regardless of whether the CSL has paid the vendor, and provided the CSL sends its renewals and orders at least 90 days in advance of the requested start date.

9.0 Automation (Basic Services)

This section covers general technological services or features sought by the CSL in addition to the Database (Section B 1.0).

- 9.1 The vendor may provide various technological or electronic means for performing transactions such as placing an order by:
 - a. Two-way transmission between the CSL's computer and the vendor's computer.
 - b. Electronic mail.
 - c. Telephone and/or voice mail.
 - d. Facsimile.

Choice of one or more of such technological means offered by vendor shall be at the CSL's sole discretion.

- 9.2 The vendor, if automated, should provide the option of delivery of machine-readable serials data from the vendor's database via magnetic tape or online transmission to the CSL's local computer, or by download to a CSL stand-alone microcomputer on diskette. (See paragraph 9.3 for standards).
